P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, we have many people in our state and nation who are unable to leave their homes, nursing homes and hospitals because of infirmities; and

WHEREAS, many of these citizens carried on civic activities in spite of their infirmities; and

WHEREAS, it is well for all citizens to be aware that we do have people who are unable to be active in community affairs; and

WHEREAS, we the citizens of South Dakota recognize our friends and neighbors who are shut-in;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby proclaim Sunday, June 1, 1969 as and encourage all citizens of South Dakota to visit or send a note of remembrance to persons unable to leave their homes or hospital beds and thus let them know they have not been forgotten by their fellowman.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 26th day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine.
